THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

IT'S OUR LAST TIME TO SAY THANK YOU, OUR LAST TIME TO SAY GOODBYE

Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee.

(Deut. 32:7)

For the last four years, we have been on a quest to document for future generations the faith of our World War II fathers. The mission is part of a larger, decade-long effort of Vision Forum Ministries called The Faith of Our Fathers Project which is dedicated to preserving and proclaiming the greatest stories of fatherhood, faith, and providence in our God-blessed nation's history.

Along the way, we have recorded hundreds of hours of personal stories from the last generation in American history with a personal link to the Christian pre-modern world. We have traveled more than twenty thousand miles to ancient battlefields like Iwo Jima and Guam on a journey of honor dedicated to the proposition that sons must ask and fathers must speak the testimonies and praises of God.

The first fruit of this effort is the release of the Vision Forum documentary, The League of Grateful Sons, which tells the story of hope, heroes, and generations through stirring tales of visionary fatherhood among the men who experienced the bloodiest fighting in Marine Corps history—the crucial battle for the island of Iwo Jima.

*"When you go home,
tell them for us and say:
'For your tomorrows,
we gave our today.'"*

FIFTH DIVISION GRAVEYARD SIGN, IWO JIMA

It was a sacred experience traveling to Iwo, standing on Mt. Suribachi with my sons, and listening to scriptures and stories shared by men, some of whom have not experienced a day in sixty years without the haunting memory of the island.

As the cameras rolled, old warriors spoke to multiple generations, pouring out their hearts in admonitions to the young

IWO REENACTMENT FOOTAGE SHOT IN TEXAS and giving thanks to God. The cry of these gray-headed grandfathers was this:

O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works. Now also when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

(Psalm 71:7-8)

Joining our team were men who had been young boys when their fathers died on Iwo. These sons returned to honor their fathers. The remarkable story of how their war-distanced fathers attempted to disciple them through letters, and how those letters were used of God to give a lifetime of encouragement to the fatherless boys, is one of the most compelling sequences in The League of Grateful Sons.

Not long before the battle, one such dad, Lt. Col. John Butler, wrote his son "Johnny Boy," urging him to "be the man of the house," to protect women and children, and to pray faithfully.

Sixty years later, "Johnny Boy" would declare of his father: "His image and deeds always loomed large and have been a major influence in my own life. . . . His smiling image was always on the mantelpiece over the fireplace in the living room of our family home, and my mother, who never remarried, and never considered another man in her life, spoke often of their life together in stories told over and over again."

On our journey, we met two types of people: Those whose fathers gave them a legacy of hope by speaking great testimonies to their children, and those who did not. The difference between the two, and the perspective of their children, was noticeable. Thank the Lord that even many reluctant fathers, now in the twilight of their lives, are beginning to discover their duties to remember, to speak, and to disciple.

THE BURDEN ON OUR GENERATION

I am deeply burdened by a sense of urgency. God has given us an opportunity—a moment in time that will never come again. Every day, more than a thousand World War II veterans die. Soon that number will be hundreds. Then there will be no more. When they die, they take with them the stories of an entire generation. These stories will be gone forever unless we capture them today. We have one last unique opportunity to honor these fathers and to bring our grandchildren face-to-face with men who played a role in the providential defense of liberties we so richly enjoy today.

FILMING VETS ON THE SANDS OF IWO JIMA

THE FAITH OF OUR FATHERS PROJECT'S TWENTY THOUSAND-MILE JOURNEY OF HONOR

JOSHUA AND JUSTICE PHILLIPS RAISE THE AMERICAN FLAG ON MT. SURIBACHI

We live in a time of great uncertainty concerning our national security. God's Word has the answer on how we may be "well" and live "long upon the land." It declares: "Honour thy father and thy mother . . . that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee" (Deut. 5:16). Paul said this "is the first commandment with promise" (Eph. 6:2-3).

The message of Scripture is this: Fathers will teach the next generation, or they will lose the next generation. Fathers will speak to the next generation about the providence of God, or their children will be without hope. They will cultivate gratitude, or they will produce a generation of ingrates. Either fathers walk beside sons teaching them to honor, or there will be no America to defend.

Our own journey to Iwo Jima, and our observation of the heroic fathers and grateful sons who returned, has left an indelible impression in our mind. It is this: We must supersede the legacy of our fathers. We must not only honor them, but we must honor them the right way. This means we must remember, give thanks, be grateful, and then build on the foundation they have given to us. We must take what they have given us and declare, "Thank you, our fathers, and now we press on. We press on as a nation. We press on as families. We press on as individuals. And we will do something with what you have given to us."

THE LEAGUE OF GRATEFUL SONS

A Feature Film from Doug Phillips

What is the godly legacy of the fathers of World War II? Their story has not been told—until now!

More than 182,000 American fathers died in the Second World War, leaving nearly a million children fatherless. Hundreds of thousands of other fathers did return from war, some who tragically never connected with their children. But within the ranks of the survivors and the heroic dead were a remarkable collection of men who made it a life mission to speak the providences of God and the meaning

“As a leader, you’ve got to lead. . . . You don’t say, ‘go take Hill 32, boys.’ You say, ‘C’mon boys, we’re taking Hill 32.’”
“No, I did not fear death. My main concern was that I did not want to . . . disappoint my father. . . . You see, he was a Christian.”

—“COLONEL” BILL HENDERSON,

of manhood to the boys who would fill their shoes. Through wartime letters and present-day pilgrimages to the bloody battlefields of their youth, the ancient warriors have spoken. Their thankful children rise to honor and surpass their legacy. They are “The League of Grateful Sons.”

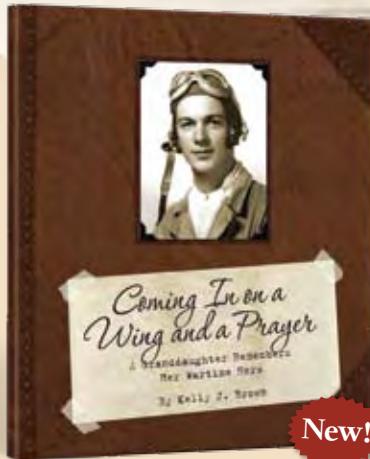

Meet tough-as-nails Marine “Colonel” Bill Henderson. He survived thirty-six days of brutal fighting on Iwo Jima and maintained moral purity, while in the midst of immoral wartime circumstances, because of the influence of his manly Christian father. Meet P-51 Mustang flyboy Bill Brown. He was shot down over Japan, but survived to train generations to sing praises to God. Now in their eighties, these ancient warriors return to the black sand of Iwo Jima to disciple a new generation in the art of Christian manhood.

Joining them are sons whose fathers never returned—the Isacks brothers and “Johnny Boy” Butler—all heirs to a treasure trove of fatherly wisdom panned from the battlefield.

Shot on location on Iwo Jima, Guam, Hawaii, and in Texas, and directed by veteran filmmaker, Geoff Botkin, The League of Grateful Sons will leave you grateful for America’s heroic fathers and motivated to surpass their legacy. DVD. Approx. 75 mins.  67880 | $18

DAVID & BATHSHEBA

New!

By Douglas W. Phillips

The true-life drama of David and Bathsheba remains among the most iconic morality stories of love and lust, honor and betrayal, nobility and tyranny, and judgment and redemption in all of history. The lessons from the sins, repentance, and life consequences for David transcend time and culture, but are especially relevant in our modern age of technology-driven immorality and office environments which breed adulterous relationships. In this stirring talk, Doug Phillips presents this tale of sin and redemption with practical application for today's husbands and wives. Compact Disc. 78 mins.  27890 | $10

HOW TO THINK LIKE A CHRISTIAN

By Douglas W. Phillips

Most Christians think like humanists—not on purpose, mind you, but because they have never been trained to “take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ” by trusting in Scripture. The results are devastating. Double-minded Christians dominate our churches. They have one foot in the world and one foot in the Church. They look to the Bible when it is convenient, but assume it is silent on most issues, rather than regarding it as “sufficient for all of faith and practice.” This lecture presents an overview of what is needed to reform our minds. 60 mins.

The Remarkable Influence of Visionary Daughters on the Kingdom of God

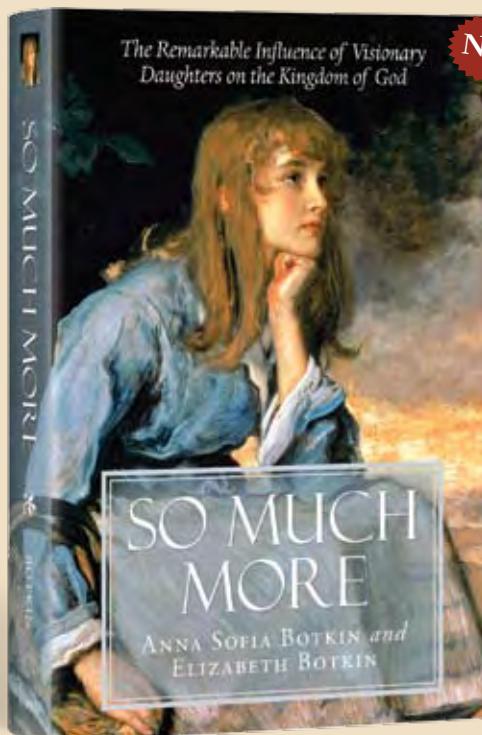

SO MUCH MORE MF

By Anna Sofia and Elizabeth Botkin

This book is not another Christian-teenage-girl “survival guide.” So Much More shows how Christian girls can wage war with the world and win. The Botkin sisters focus on how young women can rise above their God-hating culture and change it for the better.

Today, countless young ladies face difficult problems and challenging questions. While many long for godly purpose in their lives, their bewilderment mounts when they observe broken homes, distant fathers, overwhelmed mothers, degrading college courses, and a lack of spiritual guidance—both at home and at church. As hope for security and stability fades, it is no wonder that many young ladies feel orphaned, unprotected, and without hope for their futures.

Within the pages of this book, discover practical, biblical solutions for the young woman who wants to do so much more than just “survive” in a savagely feminist, anti-Christian culture. Find the answers a girl is not likely to get from her church, her peers, or her culture. Hardback. 352 pgs. BOOK 57882 | $18

Its vision is one that should awaken every daughter to the calling she has to advance the kingdom of God.”

A Father and Daughter Love Story

JENNIE B. AND THE PILOT MF

By Jennie Chancy

Before his tragic death flying a World War II warbird, military aviation historian and missionary pilot Jeff Ethell enjoyed a beautiful relationship with his precocious first-born daughter, affectionately nicknamed “Jennie B.” But four years in a Christian college undermined a lifetime of father and daughter unity by cultivating a feminist spirit of rebellion and ingratitude. God, in His mercy, used the book Mother (see pg. 12) and the influence of Titus 2 women to turn Jennie’s heart to the Lord and to her father, thus preparing her for a beautiful marriage. This is the amazing story of one daughter’s heart journey from faithful daughter to feminist, and then back home again. Compact Disc. 79 mins. CD 87660 | $10

THE BIBLICAL FAMILY

A Million-Mile Journey of Family Discipleship, Home Education, and Gospel Evangelism

"Inspiring . . . full of smiles and laughter . . . a new family classic."

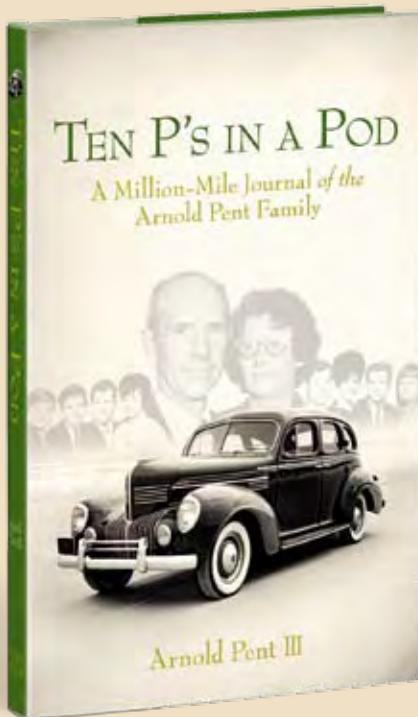

TEN P'S IN A POD

By Arnold Pent III

Future historians may look back on the Arnold Pent family and describe them as the "first modern home school family." Long before there were any state home schooling organizations or curriculum fairs, Arnold Pent declared his independence from government education and his dependence on Jesus Christ in the training of his children.

No one told him to do this. He simply read the Bible and determined to obey God—regardless of the outcome.

Like all great visionary leaders, Arnold Pent was a man with many wonderful directives for his family. The world would probably describe these initiatives as eccentricities, but they were not. In fact, Arnold Pent discovered

"Before seatbelt laws and car seats, before the suburban fad and the rise of the fifteen-passenger van, the ten-person Pent family was driving an interesting collection of automobiles one million miles around and around and around the country, preaching about the saving love of Jesus and the importance of the Bible in daily life."

—BEALL PHILLIPS

something that all fathers would be well advised to consider: True Christian leadership in the household is born in the fire of adversity. The most God-blessed expressions of biblical fatherhood are cultivated by taking the path less traveled.

I feel a special kinship to the Pent family. As a boy, I traveled constantly with my father, having visited forty-nine of the fifty states by the time I was eighteen. I sat with him for tens of thousands of miles and listened to books on tape, sermons, histories, and theology lectures. They were glorious times. We discussed everything, we saw great sights, and I always felt like I was a part of my father's life-mission. There is no doubt in my mind that my life was shaped by a father who was committed to having me by his side and to daily speaking words of life and love into my heart.

As Beall and I seek to raise our own children in the fear and admonition of the Lord, I think back to the example established for me by my father, and desire with all my heart to be for my children what my father was for me. Ten P's in a Pod has not only filled our house with laughter, but it has reminded me of the my mission.

Over the years, readers have been attracted to the endearing stories of family life found in such classics as Kathryn Forbes' Moma's Bank Account, Clarence Day's Life with Father, and Frank Gilbreth's Cheaper by the Dozen. The beauty of this book is that it combines the best elements of those classics, but with an uncompromising Gospel message.

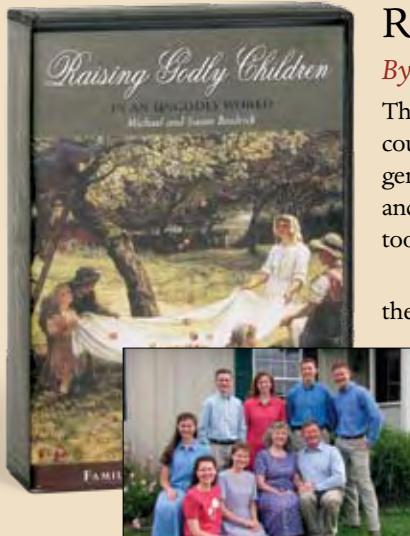

As a publisher, I consider it a high honor that the Lord and His servants, the Pent family, have allowed

Vision Forum to publish what we believe will be a new classic for twenty-first century families. Hardback. 198 pgs. BOOK 85726 | $18

VERSES OF VIRTUE

The Poetry and Prose of Christian Womanhood
Compiled and Edited by Elizabeth Beall Phillips

The time has come to sing the praises of motherhood, to extol the blessings of beautiful girlhood, and to cast a renewed vision for hearth and home.

Poetry and the beauty of language have always been a part of God's program for instilling purpose in the minds and hearts of women. In fact, the first words of love

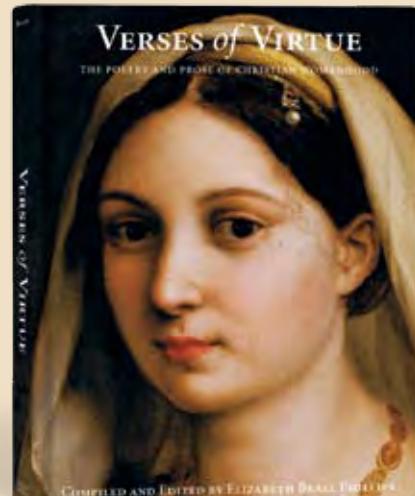

"I received Verses of Virtue yesterday. I am so grateful to have such a strong support as I seek to grow from a 'beautiful girl' into a godly woman."

communicated by man of woman were poetic words of appreciation and understanding. Drawing upon the beauty of parallelism, Adam declared of Eve, "This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh."

Throughout all the Scriptures, from the Psalms of David to the poetry of Isaiah, the verses of Deborah to the Song of Solomon, and even the divinely inspired prose of John foretelling the return of the bridegroom, our Lord uses the beauty of language to inspire a Christian vision for motherhood and home which once defined the landscape of American family life. Beall Phillips seeks to revive this vision in Verses of Virtue. Drawing from some of the most heart-warming and inspirational verses from Scripture, America's illustrious past, and antiquity, she provides women with a volume brimming with encouragement. POEMS FOR PATRIARCHS

The Verse and Prose of Christian Manhood
Compiled and Edited by Douglas W. Phillips

One reason men lack vision is because they lack poetry in their lives. Men no longer sing or recite inspirational verse, and our boys are no longer required to memorize the great psalms, hymns, and poems of Christian manhood. This should come as no surprise. The twentieth century has wreaked havoc upon chivalry and manhood. The transformation of poetry from the ennobling to the coarse, the banal, or the irrelevant is as much a sign of our national loss of manhood as it is of the decline of decency and civilization.

In Poems for Patriarchs, Doug Phillips has compiled his favorite inspirational and vision-communicating selections. This collection includes poems and prose both obscure and popular, but selected because of the profound way they speak to the most important issues in a man's life. They are neither fluffy nor frilly, foppish nor foolish, but virile and often sage, both in their composition and character. Each chapter in the book contains a generous number of selections, some new, some ancient, but all designed to address the various biblical roles, relationships, and seasons in a man's life—from early boyhood to his twilight years.

THE BIBLICAL FAMILY

A Biblical Blueprint for a Happy Home

HOME-MAKING

By J.R. Miller

Don't let the title fool you. This is not just a book for women who keep home. Home-Making is an uncompromising vision statement for the domestic bliss and cultural dominion of the Christian family. The message of Home-Making is powerful: "Sisters, Brothers, Husbands, Wives—home life is meant to be beautiful, ennobling, and victorious!"

God intends for each person, from parent to child, to play a role in family life, the ultimate goal of which is the transformation of the individual, the home, and the society for the glory of God.

Miller writes truth that we need to hear, but are usually afraid to say. He carefully addresses each member of the family, managing to find the perfect balance between inspiration and exhortation. My wife writes, "I was deeply moved as I read the beautiful descriptions of biblical family relationships." Hardback. 266 pgs. BOOK 34801 | $18

The Most Beautiful Name in the World

MOTHER

By Kathleen Norris

Edited by Jennie Chancey

This is a difficult age in which to be a woman. The woman who aspires to raise children for the glory of God, to develop the ministry of the home, or to co-labor with her husband is deemed "old-fashioned" or "unfulfilled." The modern lure of independence and career has bewitched an entire generation to exchange the beauty of Christian womanhood for the temporary enticements of a society at war with the family.

Amidst this confusion, Kathleen Norris's Mother is a refreshing call to sanity. Mother is the fictional tale of a young lady who leaves home and repudiates family life in the hope of finding personal fulfillment through independence and a career. But God dramatically changes her heart as she realizes that wealth and position are illusory and that independence can enslave a young lady. She discovers that the greatest woman she has ever known is her mother and now she longs for home and motherhood. Hardback. 202 pgs. BOOK 34898 | $18

HOW TO EVALUATE A SUITOR

Biblical Wisdom for Fathers, Mothers, Eligible Daughters, and Would-Be Grooms
By Douglas W. Phillips

There he is in his splendor. What a guy! He's the man who hopes to walk off with your daughter . . . hold on a moment. Maybe he isn't the best thing since sliced bread. Maybe he is trouble with a capital "T." Or maybe he is a great guy, but just not the great guy God intends for your little girl. How can you tell?

In this fast-paced message, Doug Phillips explains that the greatest gift a dad will ever give away is his daughter. He examines the biblical qualifications for suitors and concludes that the Bible does not anticipate perfection, but minimal threshold requirements must be met. He examines the need for careful discrimination for determining if two are "equally yoked" and the doctrine of the "bride's price." Doug also points out biblical examples of wickedness by fathers toward suitors and urges dads to act decisively, but with charity, respect, and love. 89 mins.

Stand By Your Man

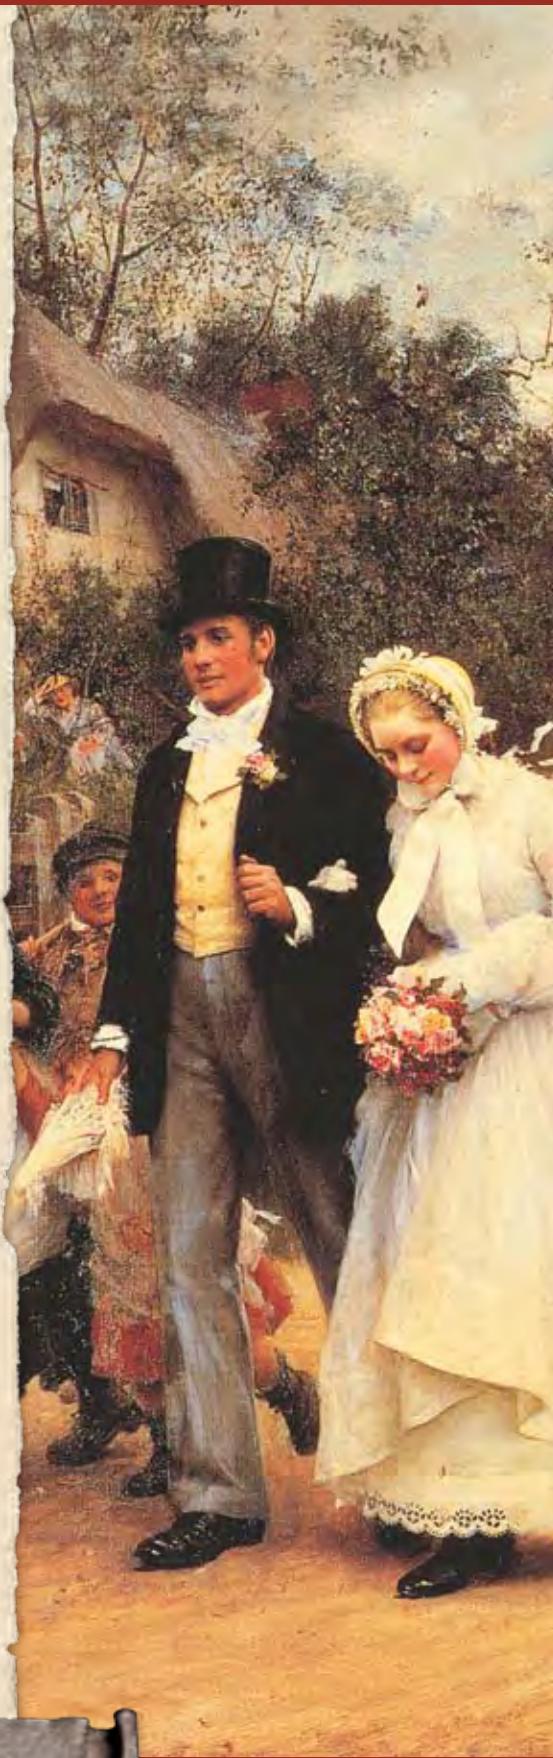

THE WISE WOMAN'S GUIDE TO BLESSING HER HUSBAND'S VISION

By Douglas W. Phillips

The Christian community is full of dear ladies discouraged because their husbands lack vision to lead the family with gusto. In some cases, the men are simply overwhelmed with present responsibilities. In other cases, they lack a biblical framework for household leadership. It certainly does not help when men have poor role models in their own lives, which is the case for a growing majority of husbands. Often wives cry out, "Help, my husband just doesn't get it," or, "I want more children, but my husband says 'no,'" or even, "My husband is nervous about home schooling." For more than ten years, Doug and Beall Phillips have spoken with hundreds who share these sentiments. But, too often, wives contribute to the problem through a wrong response. The great news is that the Bible anticipates this crisis of leadership in the home and provides clear direction for wives. Wise women will strive to bless their husband's vision by embracing the specific affirmative and negative biblical commands given to them for this very purpose. Those who do so will become a sanctifying influence on their household, grow in spiritual maturity, and become God's vehicle for their husband's spiritual revival. This series is meant to encourage both wives and husbands with the principles and the practicalities for men and women growing in family vision for the Lord. 104 mins.

Busy Fathers Can Come Home!

SAFELY HOME

By Tom Eldredge, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

A tragic failing of the contemporary church is its ineffectiveness in passing on the faith to the next generation. The children of believers too often abandon the faith of their fathers and blend into an increasingly godless society. This is happening despite a growing smorgasbord of children's programs and family ministries. Church shepherds realize that something is wrong, but are at a loss as to what to do about it. Will adding another program be the key that begins to turn things around? Tom Eldredge answers with an emphatic "no." He shows how the original conflict in the Garden between God's methods and those of the enemy were repeated in the clash of the Greek (humanist) and Hebrew (biblical) worldviews, and how we continue with the same struggle today. The choice has always been knowledge or relationship. Which is more important? Most families, churches, and schools today choose the Greek method of training children, despite the fact that only the Hebrew method, with its emphasis on relationships, will prove effective in preserving true biblical faith over time. Eldredge offers practical and biblical hope for those dads who are willing to redirect their priorities and go safely home. A central theme of this book is that pastors and local churches can, and must, develop an emphasis on building strong men who will lead in their homes. Practical guidelines are offered to help churches and men rediscover distinctively Hebrew and biblical patterns for discipleship and family life. Paperback. 170 pgs.  45987 | $10

Becoming a Godly Patriarch

FAMILY MAN, FAMILY LEADER

Biblical Fatherhood as the Key to a Thriving Family

By Philip Lancaster

What this country needs is a few good men—husbands and fathers who are willing to love and lead their households with manly resolve and godly vision. Frankly, the Church needs these men every bit as much as the rest of the country. We are experiencing a national crisis of manhood of epidemic proportions. Absent a revival of fatherhood, we can expect to see an ever-increasing rise in the number of effeminate boys and masculine women, as well as the breakdown of the Christian family as it is defined in Holy Scripture. What we desperately need today are men who will be family men and family leaders. But how?

For more than ten years, Philip Lancaster has been instilling hope and calling fathers to their rightful duties as family prophets, priests, protectors, and providers. He has emerged as one of the most articulate and theologically-sound defenders of the biblical family. Now, in his first book, Lancaster explains—in simple, easy-to-understand concepts—the biblical foundation necessary for men to turn their hearts to home and change the world. Family Man, Family Leader first presents the vision of biblical household leadership. Next, it addresses the many practical issues necessary for achieving victory as a man, from learning and acting upon God's priorities, to decision-making as a father, to growing in oneness with your wife, to personal accountability before the Lord, to achieving victory over secret sins. Whether you are a veteran visionary father or a dad just beginning the journey of patriarchy, we hope you find Family Man, Family Leader to be a source of inspiration and practical help. Our Fathers' Fathers

THE ROLE OF GRANDFATHERS IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

By Douglas W. Phillips

Did you know that the Bible has more to say about grandfathers than even fathers? But when was the last time you heard any teaching on the biblical role of grandfathers? If the answer is "never," then you may be another statistic in a culture that has forsaken biblical family life. The truth is this: rather than retiring from responsibility, "spending their children's inheritance," or being relegated to live their final days in solitude, the Bible pictures a world in which the greatest spiritual contributions in a man's life come when he achieves the status of grandfather. Doug Phillips addresses with boldness and beauty the phenomenal vision of biblical grandfathering. Whether you are a grandfather, know one, or will someday be one, this recording is important for your listening library. Compact Disc. 60 mins.  59469 | $10

Biblical Womanhood Victorious

THE ROLE OF WOMEN IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

By Douglas W. Phillips

One of the greatest secrets for cultural transformation is the power of godly women in the local church. The Bible teaches that daughters, single women, married women, and widows each play a distinct and crucial role, not only in the life of the family, but among the community of saints in the local congregation. When these roles are embraced with vision, the family and the church are economically powerful, spiritually stronger, and in the best position to be salt and light to the world. With humor and biblical insight, Doug Phillips addresses this all-important issue and casts a vision of hope for Christian women in the twenty-first century. Compact Disc. 55 mins.  59468 | $10

Who Controls the Womb?

BE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY

What the Bible Says About Having Children

By Nancy Campbell, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

Can you imagine attending a wedding where the family of the bride prayed for her to have vast legions of children who would grow up to have dominion in the land for the glory of God? This was precisely the blessing offered by the sisters of Rebekah upon her marriage to Isaac. These sentiments beautifully harmonize with scripture after scripture which extol the virtue of trusting the Lord to control the womb. For six thousand years, believers viewed children as a blessing and reward of the Lord greatly to be desired. It was widely accepted that those who cut off their seed usually did so in violation of the express commands of God. Only in the last seventy-five years has child prevention become acceptable in the Church. Perhaps more than any other philosophical shift in the history of the Church, the modern, anti-child philosophy has changed the way we view the role of fathers, mothers, family life, and multi-generational faithfulness. But genuine questions persist: Does the Bible address the question of child prevention? Is cutting off the godly seed ever an act of "good stewardship"? What about economic considerations? What about "natural" family planning? Be Fruitful and Multiply answers these questions and makes the case that Christians should do more than just "trust God" for children. We should cry out to the Lord to bless the fruit of the womb. Paperback. 228 pgs.  84325 | $14

"Nancy Campbell challenges believers to view child-bearing as an important means of glorifying God and furthering His Kingdom in this world."

My Beloved Esposa

BELOVED BRIDE: THE LETTERS OF STONEWALL JACKSON TO HIS WIFE

By Bill Potter, Foreword by Stephen Lang

He called her "my beloved esposa" because Anna was his dearest love on this earth. Ironically, while the great military exploits of General Stonewall Jackson are studied in military schools the world over, and his iron will and stern self-discipline have become legendary, little is said about his remarkable marriage. The real Thomas J. Jackson was a humble Christian and loving husband and father. The tender and instructive letters he wrote to his wife Anna are a model of godly leadership and covenantal faithfulness. From their courtship to their final days together, trace the true story of this remarkable couple through the letters of General Jackson to his bride. Even in the midst of the most arduous military campaigns, Stonewall took the time to send home extensive letters of love and devotion. Through all of this, General Jackson proved himself to be a model example for Christian husbands of the twenty-first century—especially through his dedication to living for God's glory and trusting in His providential care.

This special edition book features a foreword by Stephen Lang, the actor who played "Stonewall" Jackson in the feature film, Gods and Generals, possibly the most significant and influential film of the decade to reflect Christian faithfulness and leadership.

A Marriage That Changed America

MARRIAGE TO A DIFFICULT MAN

The Uncommon Union of Jonathan and Sarah Edwards

By Elisabeth D. Dodds,
Foreword by John and Noël Piper

When one lives in a cynical world that has forgotten the beauty and power of a truly purposeful Christian marriage, it is crucial to step back in time and walk with generations of Christians for whom such a truth was not merely an ideal to be pursued, but a living reality. From start to finish, Marriage to a Difficult Man refreshes the soul by allowing the reader to intimately peer into one of the greatest recorded unions of a man and woman. Heart Surgery for Discontent Children

THE HEART OF ANGER

By Lou Priolo

This book is mandatory. We live in an angry age, and too often we see this spirit reflected on the countenance of our children. Parents may unwittingly encourage this spirit by provoking their children to anger. Children can easily develop the habit to think, act, and be motivated by anger—especially if parents lack the biblical wisdom to correct such problems of the heart. I love this book because it is practical, biblical, and completely psychology-free. Every parent should read this!

A Son’s Love and Devotion to His Father That Resulted in the Conversion of Thousands

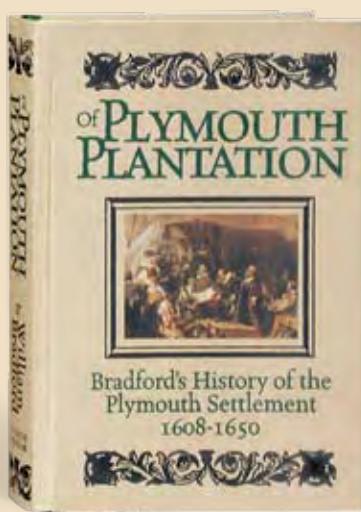

MISSIONARY PATRIARCH: THE TRUE STORY OF JOHN G. PATON, EVANGELIST AMONG THE SOUTH SEA CANNIBALS

This is the greatest missionary story you will ever read. Period. But it is much more than a missionary story. The autobiography of John G. Paton is a true-to-life primer on multi-generational faithfulness. Perhaps more than any other autobiography, this magnificent volume will provide a vivid description of the impact of biblical fatherhood on a son, and the reason why the greatest men are men who learn to honor their fathers and mothers. When I share this message before an audience, I usually begin by quoting at length an autobiographical account, penned by John G. Paton in the nineteenth century, describing how his father’s love and training prepared him to endure bitter hardship, to persevere against unspeakably difficult circumstances, and to resist sin. We have republished it because it contains the finest testimony of love and devotion between a father and son that I have ever read outside the Scriptures as John G. Paton speaks to us from the past with a healthy antidote to the challenges of our day. Hardback. 524 pgs. BOOK 55442 | $24

ADVENTURE AND EVANGELISM

The True Story of Parents Who Risked All for Their Children and Produced a Great Nation

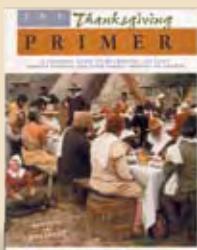

OF PLYMOUTH PLANTATION

By Governor William Bradford

Perfect for Thanksgiving!

Few people realize that America was founded because a devout band of non-conformist Christians lived and breathed the covenant promises of Jesus Christ. Though the Pilgrims left England because of religious persecution, they actually left Holland to protect their children from ungodly influences. These parents risked everything to protect their young. Bradford boldly proclaimed that these families were willing to sacrifice their lives, if necessary, "even though they [the Pilgrims] be but stepping stones" for future generations of Christians they would never meet. Of Plymouth Plantation is one of the five most inspirational books I have ever read. It is the true story of fifty "average" people who changed the world because they shared a multi-generational vision. For almost two decades, it has been a cherished family tradition to read this book aloud each Thanksgiving. My father, the family patriarch, gathers his many children and grandchildren around the table and reads for several hours the story of Bradford and the heroic Pilgrims. We cannot truly appreciate the significance of Thanksgiving if we do not know the real story. My personal library consists of thousands of volumes, but this is one of my most treasured. Your child should not be considered fully educated before reading Of Plymouth Plantation. Hardback. 353 pgs.  84149 | $24

Women and Children First!

THE BIRKENHEAD DRILL

By Douglas W. Phillips

This is the true story of the H.M. Troopship Birkenhead, of the origin of the phrase “women and children first,” and of the heroism of an entire ship of men who chose to be eaten by sharks or drown rather than let one woman or child die. A pastor from Connecticut writes, “I sat up last night and was moved to tears, particularly at Corporal W. Smith’s testimony. I was struck at his concluding remarks, ‘I join my regiment, and march and fight as if there had been no Birkenhead disaster. It is soldiering—and it is discipline.’ My, how times have changed. No trauma counseling. No counseling for those who were related to those who were traumatized, or who thought they might have been traumatized had they been there, or who were traumatized by learning of the event. No lawsuits were filed. Thank you. I will be using it to continue teaching my boys about courageous manhood.” Paperback. 83 pgs.  42157 | $8

THE SINKING OF THE TITANIC AND GREAT SEA DISASTERS

Edited by Marshall Logan,
Introduction by Douglas W. Phillips

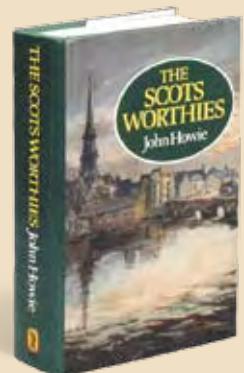

Years ago, I met Bob Garner, executive producer at Focus on the Family Films. When he was a boy, his grandmother had shown him a copy of an old, illustrated book about the Titanic. The book left a deep impression on his seven-year-old heart. Years later, while working with Robert Ballard, discoverer of the Titanic, God used the memory of that book and the story of the Titanic to bring Bob to the Lord. Intrigued, I asked my staff to track down an original copy. What I found fascinated me: the true account of men who gave up their lives for women and children because they grew up in a culture of Christian family values. We reproduced The Sinking of the Titanic to give you the look and feel of a vintage classic. Hardback. 350 pgs.  42411 | $24

THE LIFE AND CAMPAIGNS OF STONEWALL JACKSON

By Robert Lewis Dabney

Stonewall Jackson—his very name evokes the image of the solid, immovable Confederate General whose sobriquet, earned at the Battle of First Manassas, no longer requires quotation marks. His pious Christian character, unwavering commitment to duty, and role as affectionate husband—as well as his magnificent service to Virginia—were carefully recorded by his close friend, Robert Lewis Dabney. The battle accounts resonate with the first-hand knowledge of a man who has seen the face of battle, as Major Dabney often did while serving as General Jackson's adjutant in the Valley Campaign. His account of military life in the field with Jackson provides poignant insight into the character of the General as they discuss theology and military history, pray together, and gallop to the sound of the guns. Jackson's theology was supremely orthodox, rooted in the biblical tradition of Knox, Calvin, and Edwards. In a day bereft of true heroes, Stonewall shows us how a Christian soldier should live and die. Includes a free booklet of Robert Lewis Dabney quotes. Hardback. 742 pgs. BOOK 43252 | $25

Revival During the War Between the States

CHRIST IN THE CAMP

By J. William Jones

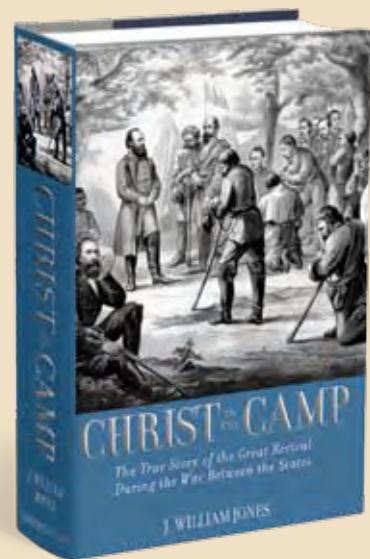

"I can only say that I am a poor sinner, trusting in Christ alone for salvation."

—General Robert E. Lee, 1864

"We have preaching or prayer-meetings almost every day, and the attendance is large . . . all seem approachable on the subject of religion." —Chaplain J.C. Hiden, Charlottesville Hospital

In the midst of the titanic struggle of the American War Between the States, a spiritual war for the souls of men was waged with equal vigor. Between 1861 and 1865, many thousands of soldiers professed Christ as their Savior and Lord, and many more were renewed in their commitment to serve God in camp and battlefield.

Herein are recorded stories of the heroism of chaplains who stood in the line of battle to minister to the fallen and to work at the bedside of fatally ill comrades, some of whom were themselves counted among the slain. It tells of worship services in camps attended by ten, a hundred, or a thousand men gathered to hear the Word of God expounded. Here, too, we read of the Christian generals who supported the many facets of gospel work: Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, Jeb Stuart, and others. Hardback. 624 pgs. BOOK 34408 | $25

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

*Between the dark and the daylight,
When the night is beginning to lower,
Comes a pause in the day's occupations,
That is known as the Children's Hour.*

The Lamplighter LIBRARY

For nearly a decade, I have been reading the beautiful Gospel Lamplighter novels to my children. We anxiously await the release of each new volume, as they are a regular part of our spiritual reading diet. Oftentimes, the sweetest part of our day is that precious time when the children are gathered around Beall and me in joyful anticipation of a special story. I live for the squeals of delight and plaintive appeals for "Just one more story, Daddy." On many occasions, I have seen the Holy Spirit touch the hearts of my little children and draw them closer to the Savior through the reading of these precious tales. May you enjoy them as much as we have.

LITTLE FAITH

By Mrs. O.F. Walton

Little Faith adored her beloved adopted father who had taken care of her since her mother had died. But when Providence allowed hardship to enter Faith's life, she responded by running away. As she ran, she poured out her troubles to her Great Friend, Jesus. Resting one evening in a church, she awoke to hear the minister say, "Little Faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?" And so she begins to learn the meaning of her own name. This compelling short story will show you and your children how true faith in the Lord Jesus carries the believer through the most grievous of hardships. Hardback. 95 pgs. BOOK 84320 | $14

Daddy's Devotional for Children

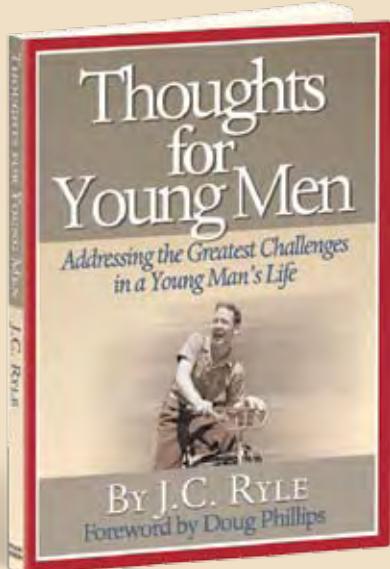

BOYS & GIRLS PLAYING

By J.C. Ryle

This is my favorite children's devotional. You can almost hear the tender, loving voice of the great nineteenth century writer exhorting, "Dear children, I am going to talk to you about Jesus Christ and your souls. Listen, dear children, for this is very important." The gentle instruction within these little sermons is powerful. J.C. Ryle's writing has a timeless quality that makes them understandable and meaningful to boys and girls of today. Hardback. 128 pgs. BOOK 98604 | $16

BIBLICAL PATRIARCHY

Holiness for Boys THOUGHTS FOR YOUNG MEN

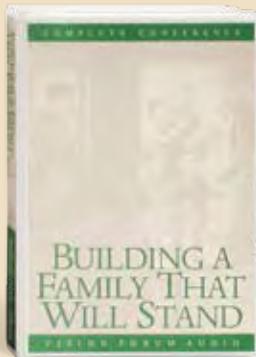

By J.C. Ryle, Foreword by Douglas W. Phillips

"Look within each one of you. Examine your own hearts. Do you see there any habit or custom that you know is wrong in the sight of God? If you do, don't delay for a moment in attacking it. Resolve at once to lay it aside." —J.C. RYLE

There are four great temptations that plague most young men: sloth, lust, love of pleasure, and peer pressure. J.C. Ryle, the last of the great Puritans, tackles each of these subjects with a tenderness and tact which is unsurpassed. If it was difficult to be a young man in the days of the nineteenth century when Ryle first penned Thoughts for Young Men, it is all the more difficult to be a young man in the twenty-first century world of image-overload, radical individualism, and rampant sensuality. Thoughts for Young Men is the most relevant and helpful book on the subject in print. I was first introduced to Ryle about fifteen years ago, and he remains my favorite teacher on personal holiness. We read this book over and over again to the whole family. Paperback. 96 pgs. BOOK 52014 | $7

Presidential Lessons IN CHILD DISCIPLESHP

THE BIBLE LESSONS OF JOHN QUINCY ADAMS FOR HIS SON

Compiled and Edited by Douglas W. Phillips

"My Dear Son, I have thought if in addition to the hour which I daily give to the reading of the Bible, I should also from time to time (and especially on the Sabbath) apply another hour occasionally to communicate to you the reflections that arise in my mind upon its perusal, it might . . . fix and promote my own attention to the excellent instructions of that sacred Book . . ."—J.Q.A.

Historian David McCullough has described President John Quincy Adams as one of the most principled and certainly one of the most intelligent men ever to occupy the White House. Born in 1767, Adams served his country as secretary, ambassador, United States Senator, Secretary of State, President, and finally Representative in Congress. However, all of these remarkable achievements are secondary to his role as father. Though a busy man, Adams made it his priority to study the Bible and to train his son to love God's Holy Word. His example stands out for all men as a shepherd who loved his family flock. Paperback. 91 pgs.  17762 | $10

THE LETTERS & LESSONS OF TEDDY ROOSEVELT FOR HIS SONS

Compiled and Edited by Douglas W. Phillips

Imagine what it would have been like to have had Theodore Roosevelt for a father. Here is a bold adventurer, an insatiable hunter, an audacious politician, and also a daddy who loved to play with toys on the floor of the White House. Roosevelt simply adored his children, four of whom were boys, each of whom he was intent on turning into a man of action. His commitment was evident not only in the remarkable globe-trotting adventures on which they accompanied him, but also in the copious letters that he wrote to them, many of which communicated deep truths about manhood, Christianity, and courage. Roosevelt's words offer fascinating clues into the life of a man who vigorously sought to balance leadership and fatherhood. This collection includes some of the most interesting letters and lessons from T.R. to his boys as an inspiration to modern fathers to embrace with vigor their charge to raise up manly sons. UNITING CHURCH AND FAMILY

A National Conference Promoting Family-Friendly Churches

In August 2002, more than five hundred churchmen—including pastors, elders, and deacons—gathered in St. Louis for a historic conference dedicated to the reformation of the local church on a matter of pressing urgency: the relationship of the church to fatherhood and family. After more than a century of the devastating influence of feminism, government education, and mass marketing techniques, many parents are beginning to wonder whether church is still a safe place for their children.

In contrast, through movements like home education, key segments of the evangelical church are experiencing a revival of interest in fatherhood and family. However, as fathers and mothers have begun to turn their hearts to home, many have turned to the local church only to find opposition. Sadly, some churches actually persecute families who want to worship as a family or who express concern over church youth groups. Often, the tragic results are nomadic families who flit from church to church or renegades who refuse to place themselves under the accountability of a local church. Here, too, the damage to families is incalculable. God requires His people to be under biblical local churches with biblical preaching, biblical ordinances, and biblical discipline. So how do we unite church and family? Join R.C. Sproul, Jr., Doug Phillips, John Thompson, and many others to examine this watershed issue. 12 hrs.

"Help! My church youth group is destroying my children!"

CHURCH AND FAMILY

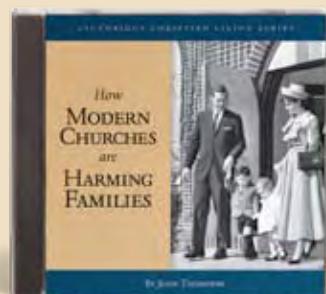

Isolationism, Syncretism, or Kingdom-Advancing Holiness?

THE SPOTLESS BRIDE

New!

By Douglas W. Phillips

"Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints" (Revelation 19:7,8). You cannot understand the Church if you cannot picture the glory of Christian marriage. The Bible communicates the beautiful image of our relationship with Christ in the context of love, espousal, and holy consummation. Like a bride for her groom, the Church is to be holy and spotless. But how does the bride of Christ remain pure in a pagan culture? In this controversial message, Doug Phillips challenges the adulterous behavior of the modern church and asserts the principle of holiness through cultural antithesis. HOW MODERN CHURCHES ARE HARMING FAMILIES

By John Thompson

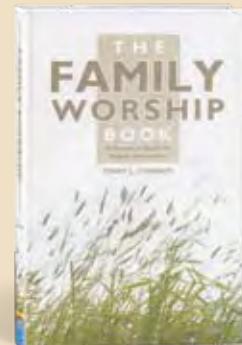

This is a masterful presentation of the modern crisis between church and home by a man who wears the hats of father, teacher, and theologian. John Thompson addresses eight problems—wrong philosophies of church growth, how to meet the needs of a congregation, outreach, loyalty, shepherding families, socialization, ministry, and application of Scripture. In each case, John shows us that the Bible is the best antidote to the problem. This is a life-changing message. 44 mins.

THE FAMILY WORSHIP BOOK

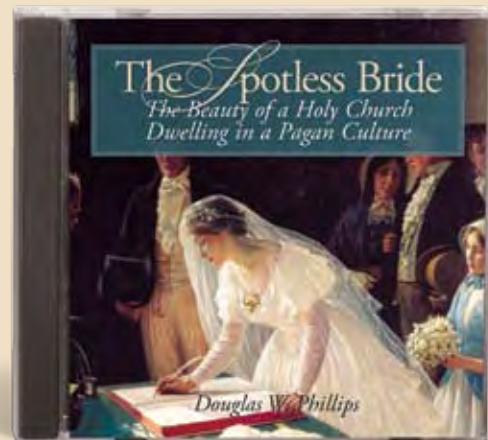

A Resource Book for Family Devotions, By Terry L. Johnson

When asked by men, "What can I do to bring vision to my family and win the hearts of my children?" my answer is to begin the daily practice of family worship. No other single act will do more to foster family unity than the regular practice of worshipping Christ as a family. This may be the most helpful toolbook available outside the Bible itself for conducting family worship. This book answers the five questions I hear from mothers and fathers desperate to begin the journey: What is family worship? Why should I do it? What practical tools do other families use in their family worship? How can I start? How do I make it a daily practice? Includes helpful checklists, guidelines, and reading resources. HOW GOD WANTS US TO WORSHIP HIM

By Dr. Joe Morecraft III,
Introduction by Douglas W. Phillips

When it comes to worship, the sad truth is that most Christians have traded their New Testament heritage for the hip and trendy, dispensing with the simplicity and beauty of New Testament worship. In this well-reasoned and exegetically sound treatise, Dr. Morecraft offers a principled defense for the Bible as the only guide for worship in the meeting of the church. In a day when the Sunday worship of evangelical churches is too often dominated by performers and youth culture, it is increasingly rare to find churches that take seriously the doctrine of sola scriptura and regulative worship. The Patriotic Textbook Series

“One of the Ten Most Important Books in a Christian’s Library”

NOAH WEBSTER’s 1828 DICTIONARY

When Noah Webster first published this book, he understood that whoever defined the words of a culture would capture that culture. So he gave the American people a dictionary in which words have meaning in terms of their relationship to Jesus Christ. In fact, this is the only comprehensive dictionary of the English language in print that seeks to communicate a distinctively biblical worldview, even to the point of using Scripture in the definitions.

“This volume was produced during the years when the American home, church, and civil spheres were established upon a biblical worldview.”

Wise parents build worthy libraries to pass on to their children. Gigantic and oversized, this heavy book is perhaps second only to the Bible in terms of importance in your home. It is likely one of the ten most important books you will bring into your home for the education of your family. Now your children can join the ranks of those generations of American leaders who were weaned on Webster. Our book is sturdy and well bound with acid-free paper and a gold foil stamp. A worthy investment. Hardback. 2,000 pgs. BOOK 36547 | $75 $56 (Save $19) Think multi-generationally: Two for $100 (Save $50)

THE ORIGINAL BLUE BACK SPELLER

The great American educator, Noah Webster, first published the Blue Back Speller in 1783. His goal was to provide a uniquely American, Christ-centered approach to training children. Little did he know the impact that this remarkable gem would have. Many of the Founding Fathers used this book to home school their children, and it is still our recommendation for you today. THE NEW-ENGLAND PRIMER

Many scholars agree that most, if not all, of the Founding Fathers were taught to read and write using this volume, which is unsurpassed to this day for its excellence in practical training and Christian worldview. COLLEGE WITHOUT COMPROMISE

By Scott & Kris Wightman, Foreword by R.C. Sproul, Jr.

In examining the need for higher education, the goal of the Christian should not be to "survive college." The goal should be victory: to equip the next generation with the character and skills they need to fulfill their callings and lead effective lives for Christ. It explains how to: turn high-school coursework into college credit, pursue credit by examination, prepare for post-graduate work, and blend independent and traditional approaches to college training—all the while emphasizing faith, purity, character, and servanthood. MAKING WISE DECISIONS ABOUT COLLEGE AND LIFE AFTER HOME SCHOOL

By Douglas W. Phillips

The majority of Christians approach the "who, what, when, why, where, and how" of higher education blindly. They are either handicapped by false notions that a college degree is a prerequisite for success, or they abandon altogether the importance of post-high school education. Neither is correct. My goal in these controversial messages is to clear away the intellectual and factual debris and open a path for parents to use clear biblical analysis to determine whether college is a wise choice for their child. I take a hard look at the realities of the college classroom, the culture, and examine the strengths and weaknesses of various alternatives to college. 78 mins. PILGRIMS VS. INDIANS

Racial Genocide or Biblical Dominion in Colonial New England?

Recently, "America's Hometown" erected new monuments near Plymouth Rock referring to the Pilgrims as genocidal murderers. In truth, the Pilgrims provided the most godly view of Christian-Indian relations seen in American history. In this message, Doug Phillips addresses the question: Should we respect pagan cultures or seek to transform them? 78 mins.

The Truth about the Faith of America's Founding Fathers

These days, it is not surprising to hear leading Christian thinkers refer to our Founding Fathers as Deists. However, the time has come to set the record straight, and no one is better suited to handle the job than historian Dr. Joe Morecraft. Dr. Morecraft presents the founders as real men, but men who operated in a distinctively Christian and Calvinistic cultural consensus. He ably rebuts the counterarguments presented by those who oppose the providential view of American history. 62 mins.

Understanding the True Causes of the American Civil War

Slavery? States rights? Economic pressure? What were the true causes of the War Between the States? How was it possible for so many "great" men, many of whom were Christians, to disagree so fundamentally on the defining war of American history? For years, Christian students have been befuddled by the nonsense spouted by secular commentators. Into the fray steps historian Bill Potter with a scholarly, Christian response. 76 mins.

An American Covenant?

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN

By Daniel J. Ford

This book answers the question: Was America built on, and is she duty-bound, to a covenant? The Bible begins and ends with the doctrine of the covenant. It makes the case that no nation in Western civilization was ever birthed from such a self-consciously covenantal model as the United States. In this book, you will learn of the great covenantal inheritance of Christianity, discover the noble heritage of our nation's forefathers, and glean insights into the practical application of covenantal thinking in terms of our holy responsibilities toward the family, church, and state. Introduction to Christianity, Law, and Culture: A Video Curriculum New!

A Video Course on God, Government, Law, and Culture Designed to Supplement High School and Pre-Law Studies, Pastoral Ministry, and Legal Private Practice

Having grown up in and around politics for my entire life and practiced law in the defense of home school freedoms and parental rights, it is my observation that there are four key problems that undermine the ability of Christians to influence the society in which they live: Lack of confidence in the Word of God as the sufficient guide for law, ethics, and policy; ignorance of the biblical foundation for our common law; an ungodly dependence on pragmatic, rather than principled, methodologies; and failure to practice living out godly principles of self-government in our own homes. The Witherspoon School was founded to specifically address each of these issues.

Over the last six years, the Witherspoon School of Law and Public Policy has graduated hundreds of students, including home educators, law students, pastors, attorneys, judges, legislators, and many others who share a common vision to better understand the biblical foundations for law and public policy.

Recorded live from the 2005 Witherspoon School held in Luray, Virginia, there are thirteen messages on twelve DVDs. These lectures have been carefully selected to give high school and pre-law students a thorough introduction and crash course in American law and public policy from a biblical and historical perspective. Included are messages from Doug Phillips, Chief Justice Roy Moore, Justice Tom Parker, Dr. Paul Jehle, Dr. John Eidsmoe, and William Einwechter. Over 14 hours of lectures. DVD 27980 | $75

HOW TO DETHRONE THE IMPERIAL JUDICIARY

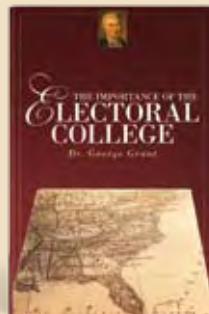

By Dr. Edwin Vieira

How will we select our Supreme Court and federal judges? How will we hold those in judicial office accountable? The lives of millions of unborn babies rest in part on how this question is answered. For decades, federal courts have been "making up law." Liberal and conservative lawmakers have been reinforcing such behavior by appointing judges who believe that the immoral and unconstitutional decisions of renegade judges are legitimate. Incredibly, some of these men—professing Christians—demand that judges must be obeyed, even when they offer rulings which provide for the vivisection of little babies, or seek to redefine the institution of marriage. But is that true? In his brilliant book, Dr. Edwin Vieira explains how issues like abortion and homosexual marriages can be resolved without special constitutional amendments, if we will simply use Constitutional guidelines to hold lawless judges accountable for their behavior. THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE

By Dr. George Grant

What do George W. Bush, Bill Clinton, John F. Kennedy, Harry Truman, Woodrow Wilson, Abraham Lincoln, and eight other American Presidents have in common? Each received less than a majority of the votes to gain the White House. From a constitutional perspective, there is just one reason why George Bush was elected president in 2000—the Electoral College. In this timely primer on the electoral process, Dr. George Grant not only makes the case for the brilliance, wisdom, and continuing necessity of the Electoral College, he teaches you how to defend it. A CHRISTIAN DIRECTORY

By Richard Baxter

This volume is affectionately called "my Baxter" in the Phillips house. Whenever a difficult practical or theological issue is raised, I inevitably turn to Richard Baxter and his Christian Directory. His work is an inexhaustible storehouse of wisdom and insight into the practical application of the Word to the Christian's life. The book is divided into four sections that cover the Christian's private duties, family duties, church duties, and duties to rulers and neighbors. The following is just a sample of the more than one thousand subjects addressed in this massive tome: Are church tunes lawful, being of man's invention? When is it lawful to go to court? Is it lawful to lay wagers? May I promise a robber money to save my life? Dr. Timothy Keller calls A Christian Directory, "the greatest manual on biblical counseling ever produced." Hardback. 948 pgs. BOOK 56455 | $60

THE ANNALS OF THE WORLD

What Augustine was for orthodoxy and Calvin was for theology, Archbishop James Ussher was for biblical historiography. No man in church history left a more indelible imprint on the thinking of Christians concerning the chronology of the ancient world than Ussher. Hundreds of years after first publishing this work, Ussher's scholarship has stood the test of time.

Updated from a seventeenth-century Latin manuscript to modern English, The Annals of the World contains the fascinating history of the ancients, from the Genesis creation to the destruction of the Jerusalem temple. Ussher traveled throughout Europe, gathering much information from the actual historical documents, many of which are now lost to the world.

The Annals of the World was so highly regarded for its accuracy, that its timeline (pointing to an earth of just over six thousand years) was included in the margins of many King James Version Bibles for three centuries. When the Church began to embrace evolutionary chronology, Ussher's notes were removed.

The Annals of the World is packaged in a beautiful display box, and the volume itself is smythe-sewn with gold-gilded edges and foil embossing. It includes eight appendices and contains over ten thousand footnotes from the original text, which have been updated with references from works in the Loeb Classical Library by Harvard Press.

"The translation into English and publication of The Annals of the World, for the first time in almost four-hundred years, is one of the most significant Christian publishing events in years."

The translation into English and publication of The Annals of the World, for the first time in almost four hundred years, is one of the most significant Christian publishing events in years. This is a multi-generational book meant to be passed on to your children. Christian fathers owe it to their posterity to acquire this volume and display it in a place of prominence in the family library.

Of Ussher, Dr. Francis Nigel Lee writes, "Raised in a Bible-believing Calvinistic environment, Dr. Ussher soaked himself in the Holy Scriptures without ceasing. He also read the Early Church Fathers—systematically, every day, for eighteen years. Head of Ireland's foremost Theological Faculty, Ussher was internationally the greatest Anglican antiquarian and theologian of his age—if not of all time."

THE CHRONOLOGY OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

By Dr. Floyd Nolen Jones

New!

Perhaps the best defense of the accuracy and trustworthiness of biblical chronology in print, Dr. Jones' important work has one goal: to demonstrate "that every chronological statement contained in the Sacred Writ is consistent with all other chronological statements contained therein." Were the Hebrews in Egypt for 430 years or a shorter length of time? Were there 66, 70, or 75 "souls" in Egypt when Jacob arrived? He thoroughly investigates and answers the most perplexing chronological and mathematical quandaries in Scripture. Complete with forty-eight reliable explanatory texts, charts, and diagrams. A CHRISTIAN SURVEY OF WORLD HISTORY

By Rousas John Rushdoony

As a boy traveling with my father, many happy hours were spent discussing the lessons we were learning from the wonderful books on tape my father provided for our family. One of the most influential was Dr. R.J. Rushdoony's A Christian Survey of World History. This twelve-cassette series is, to my knowledge, the most biblical overview of world history ever produced. In this course, you will learn much more than just facts—you will learn to identify the main philosophies that have driven mankind and understand their relationship to Christianity. In his introduction, Dr. Rushdoony writes, "My purpose herein and in my Biblical Philosophy of History . . . has been to state that history is God-ordained. The unity of history is that man is a fallen creature whom God is redeeming to create the kingdom of God. . . . History presents us with a battle against man's fallen will and his attempts to create the Kingdom of Man."

RUSHDOONY

A Christian Survey of World History can be used as a stand-alone curriculum or as a supplement to a study of world history. This is one of the few series that I would make mandatory for every Christian student to complete prior to graduation. Topics include: God and Israel; Ancient Egypt; Assyria and Babylonia; The Persian Empire; Greece; Christ and the Beginnings of the Faith; The Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire; The Early Church Confronts the World; Islam; The Frontier Age; The New Humanism; and the Reformation. God's Blessing on America

AMERICAN HISTORY TO 1865

By Rousas John Rushdoony

Dr. R.J. Rushdoony's American History to 1865 was one of the most influential American history series I had the pleasure of studying during my high school years. More than any other series or book, these prepared me for the philosophical onslaught of historical revisionism I would later meet during my university days. Many of the leading Christian thinkers and writers of our present day were weaned on these outstanding tapes. When you complete this series, you will have a comprehensive and distinctively Christian understanding of almost three hundred years of American history.

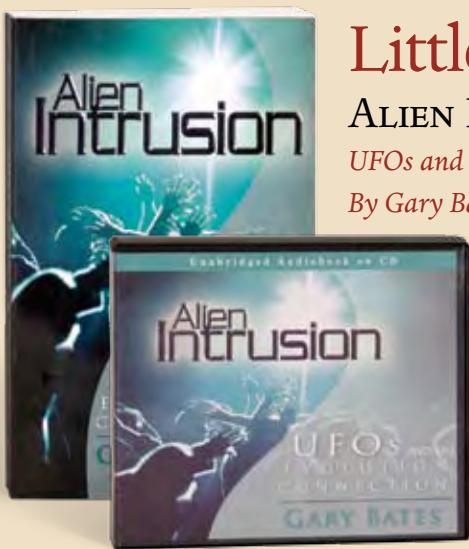

Although it does not go beyond 1865 (leaving the listener wanting more), Dr. Rushdoony points out that the Civil War was a watershed in American history and was the beginning of secular attempts to rewrite history. There can be no understanding of early American history without an understanding of the faith that undergirds its founding and growth. Of particular interest are the legal issues behind the American War for Independence, an examination of the observations of De Tocqueville, and the development of American culture by free men in an era of small government. This handsome album contains 18 audiocassettes and a total of 36 lectures. 18 hrs. CASS. 47042 | $88

Little Green Men, Big Yellow Lies

ALIEN INTRUSION

UFOs and the Evolution Connection

By Gary Bates

New!

Given the fact that thousands of Americans claim to have been abducted by aliens and millions more believe in aliens, the Church can no longer laugh off the issue of "little green men." A reasoned, biblical answer must be given to the question of extraterrestrial life. Until now, most Christian literature on the subject has been fantastical, uninformed, or simply inadequate.

Enter Alien Intrusion, Vision Forum's pick for the most interesting, fresh, helpful, and delightful worldview book of 2005. The compelling research presented in this volume is such that it has rocked the secular UFO community. Alien Intrusion revisits the most famous events that have defined UFO culture, such as: Roswell and alien autopsies, astronaut Gordon Cooper's sightings, Major Donald Keyhoe's allegations of official silence, and the claims of famous contactees Billy Meier and George Adamski. Also discover evidence about alien abductions and other UFO phenomena that is widely ignored by the UFO community. The author's research and conclusions will surprise you and challenge your thinking—not just about UFOs, but about the nature of life itself. This is a landmark volume that brings together the most important evidences and comes to conclusions far more sinister—and yet profound—than most could imagine. For a delightful family experience, don't just read the book, listen to it on CD!

Genesis and the War of the Worldviews

BACK TO GENESIS

An Uncompromising Defense of the Normative, Historical, Grammatical Understanding of the Book of Beginnings

It is impossible to have a coherent, biblical worldview without an acceptance of the historical, grammatical understanding of the book of Genesis. Taken from a composite of conferences featuring Dr. John Morris of the Institute for Creation Research and Doug Phillips, Back to Genesis presents an uncompromising look at the Book of Beginnings and its influence on science, theology, and ethics. There is an important reason why the first eleven chapters of Genesis are under attack today—every major doctrine of the Christian faith finds its origin and explanation ultimately in these chapters. Furthermore, the entire ethical foundation of Christian society is predicated on a literal understanding of Genesis, from the doctrine of marriage to the mandate for clothing. The Back to Genesis album addresses these issues and many more, including the fact that dinosaurs lived contemporaneously with man, the issue of starlight and time, that the geological column was primarily a result of the catastrophic events of Noah's day, and that the fossil record specifically points to a young earth. The idea of scientific neutrality is eradicated, and the fact that all scientists bring religious bias to their work and method of data interpretation is clearly established. Over 9 hrs.

By Douglas W. Phillips and William Einwechter

Whether you have a firm position on the issue of baptism or are seeking further clarity from the Scriptures, we believe you will find The Great Debate over Baptism and the Covenant to be an enormous blessing. In this CD recording, William Einwechter makes an exegetically derived covenantal argument that baptism is for those believers who have actually professed faith in Christ. WELCOME TO A NEW WORLD OF INDEPENDENT CHRISTIAN FILMMAKING

We live on the threshold of a revolution in independent Christian filmmaking. For the first time in more than half a century, Christians have the opportunity to change the terms of debate for this crucial medium of cultural influence by challenging the Hollywood giant. Like David's sling before Goliath's enormous sword, the weapons of this warfare are unconventional by industry standards, but when wielded with accuracy and faith, they can strike a devastating blow to the modern pagan elites who seek to crush the very witness of God in this nation.

In November 2004, more than seven hundred gathered for the first-ever San Antonio Independent Christian Film Festival and Jubilee Awards. Representing states from Oregon to Florida and foreign countries including England and Scotland, these filmmakers came together to advance a Christian vision of victory for film. Sponsored by Vision Forum Ministries, the festival featured 38 film semi-finalists, the winner of which took home a $10,000 Grand Prize. The 2005 Film Festival drew from more than 130 film submissions and inaugurated the Christian Filmmakers Academy.

Like the Berlin Wall, the seemingly impenetrable colossus of Hollywood, with its enslaving influence on American culture, will someday come crashing down. Thankfully, inexpensive technologies, independent distribution methods, and a rising tide of innovative, Christ-loving visionaries are evidence of unprecedented opportunities for Christians who are willing to "take every [frame] captive" through a presuppositionally biblical approach to making films outside the Hollywood leviathan. In this groundbreaking book, experienced filmographer and CGI artist Isaac Botkin prepares Christians for successful Christ-honoring

THOUSANDS... NOT BILLIONS

One of the leading frauds foisted upon the general public is the notion that modern scientific dating techniques confirm a billion-year-old earth. Despite the fact that even pro-evolutionist scientists in fields of dating technology admit the tremendous inadequacies of their procedures, such concerns must be suppressed by academic elites to prevent the evolutionist's house of cards from collapsing. Now, top scientists and Ph.D.s from diverse disciplines come together as part of "The Rate Project" to expose the fraud and present new and groundbreaking evidence for a relatively young earth. Visually powerful. 60 mins. DVD 47592 | $18

FAMILY FILMS

Best Family Films

MOODY SCIENCE VIDEO COLLECTION, VOLUMES 1-19

When my first son was born, there was only one film series that I thoroughly trusted. I knew that these high-quality videos would be free from bad attitudes, false philosophies, chaotic images, and noxious sounds. I also knew that the films would cultivate a taste for beauty, an appreciation for the natural world, a love of science, and a sound perspective on the Creator. And they were fun too! Eleven years and six children later, my opinion is still the same. For my money, the Moody Science Video Classics are among the most God-honoring, entertaining, sound, instructive, and family-friendly films available, and because these films touch on history, science, and theology, we find them to be very helpful supplements to our home education program.

These films truly capture the imagination of a child. Dr. Irwin Moon of Moody Science turned to the world of the Venus fly trap, to secret technologies of ancient man, and many more mysteries of Creation to entertain and teach character. Hundreds of thousands of children, like my own, have grown up with the memorable stories documented in these wonderful films, and I am always amazed to see with what accuracy they recount detail after detail.

“One of the best investments for our home-schooling children. Not only are they timeless, since they point to the Creator, but they speak to all age levels—my children, ages 6-18, talk together about each video for hours after viewing it!”

VISION OF VICTORY

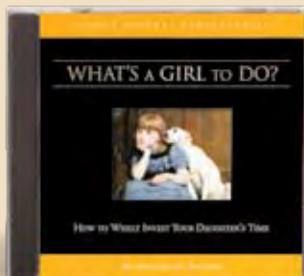

The Bible states that "where there is no vision, the people perish." A corollary is that where there is no vision, the family perishes. Our families are perishing because they lack vision. Why do they lack vision? I believe that too often Christians look to the wrong source for vision. They look to pop culture, to themselves, or to their emotions for personal guidance. While acknowledging that the Bible is the Word of God, many still do not perceive that the Bible is truly sufficient for providing them answers to all matters of faith and practice. At Vision Forum, we firmly believe that the doctrine of the sufficiency of Scripture is foundational to a victorious worldview. This has been the theme at the family-based conferences sponsored by Vision Forum Ministries this past year, and is why we offer the Family Renewal Audio Library. These messages offer biblical answers to many of the most-asked questions from parents who long for a victorious family vision. Questions like: How do I build a family-centered lifestyle? • Should single mothers home educate? • How do I ensure that my daughter receives a thorough education and yet train her to be a virtuous "keeper at home?" • How do I teach my children to honor? • What role should church youth groups play in the life of my children? The messages are challenging, but it is our prayer that they will motivate the believer to "study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (II Timothy 2:15). Messages recorded by Doug Phillips.

WHAT'S A GIRL TO DO?

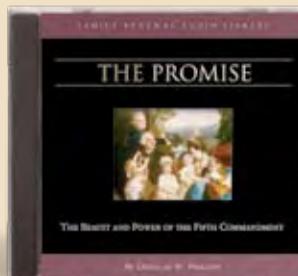

How to Wisely Invest Your Daughter's Time

A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. The same is true of double-minded parents. Across America we have met parents who desperately want their daughters to grow to be virtuous women with a love for home. However, many of these same parents continue to build their daughters' future on a feminist model. Frankly, most Christians are unaware that the Bible offers clear guidelines for how wise parents can invest their daughters' time for the glory of God. This message offers hope and direction on how to cultivate virtue. 55 mins.

THE PROMISE

The Beauty and Power of the Fifth Commandment

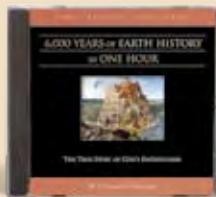

Is it "well with you?" If not, it may be because there are unresolved issues relating to honor in your life. "Honor your father and mother" is the first command with a promise. When you practice honor, "it will be well with you." But what does this mean? What are the consequences of dishonor? How do we honor wicked or perverse authority figures including parents who may be in rebellion before the Lord? This message has been shared with more than fifty thousand people. The tape addresses the blessings associated with honor and how to instill honor in the hearts of your children. 60 mins.

What a privilege to be the father of three precious daughters and husband to the greatest wife in the world. My constant prayer is that the Lord will continue to affirm them as women of God. This same prayer is the heart of our mission at Vision Forum. Since our founding in 1998, Vision Forum has been committed to the restoration of the Christian family. Our book catalog, our All-American Boy's Adventure Catalog, and the Beautiful Girlhood Collection are all designed to tackle different aspects of the cultural battle for the family.

We aspire, by the grace of God, to encourage the rebuilding of a culture of virtuous womanhood. In a world that frowns on femininity, that minimizes motherhood, and that belittles the beauty of being a true woman of God, we dare to believe that the biblical vision for girlhood is a glorious vision. It is, in fact, a beautiful vision. It is a vision for purity and contentment, for faith and fortitude, for enthusiasm and industry, for heritage and home, and for joy and friendship. It is a vision so bright and so wonderful that it must be boldly proclaimed. We are here to proclaim it. Amid a culture brimming with mixed messages, shallow and self-serving ideals, and depraved "role-models," may you and your precious daughters find the following pages to be a refreshing and edifying oasis of innocence.

Girlhood is a very brief season in the life of a young lady. Nurture it, protect it, and by God's grace, fill it with the principles and tools needed to make it truly beautiful.

DOUGLAS W. PHILLIPS, ESQ., PRESIDENT

Beautiful Girlhood is...

Faith & Fortitude

The spirit of beautiful girlhood is alive in the girl who, with courage and fortitude, perseveres through the many challenges of life. She realizes that “faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen,” and consequently, strives for the principled course of action.

Purity & Contentment

To be pure in body, mind, and spirit is more precious than all the promises the world offers. Young ladies who experience a beautiful girlhood guard their hearts against anything that would rob them of purity, and are content to wait upon the Lord and trust the leadership of Mom and Dad.

Femininity & Grace

The truly beautiful girl is one who radiates that inner grace which only comes from the confidence in being a woman of God. She enjoys dressing like a lady and being about the business of women. Because of this, others think of her with respect. Her very comportment communicates a gentle, gracious spirit.

Enthusiasm & Industry

Proverbs tells us that a virtuous woman “works with her hands with delight,” and “does not eat the bread of idleness.” The truly beautiful girl is one who sees her life as a mission of service. What others view as a burden, she views as a blessing and opportunity.

Home & Hospitality

One of the defining qualities of beautiful girlhood is a love for home and hospitality. A young girl watches her mother and looks forward to the day when she, too, will have a family. While other girls are driven by wanderlust, the hospitable girl finds true contentment at home.

Joy & Friendship

The woman of God is joyful and seeks companionship with those who share the same vision. For the daughter who has embraced the beauty of Christian girlhood, the richest friendships begin within her family, where she learns to love and honor, and first learns the joy of belonging to another.

Beautiful Girlhood Collection

When a girl plays with a doll...

...she is preparing to be a mommy someday. Her first role model is her own mother, and her first opportunity at role-playing is with her dolls. One of the sweetest aspects of being a mother is seeing my daughters imitate me as they play together with their dolls. With this in mind, we offer two special 18" dolls from the Beautiful Girlhood Collection for your girls to cherish for years to come and then pass on to a future daughter. Liberty and her sister doll, Evangeline, are made by Engel Doll Company, a premier European doll-maker which has made quality dolls since 1896. Liberty has soft brown hair and lovely blue eyes, and her sister Evangeline has golden hair and sweet brown eyes. Exquisitely crafted, these darling dollies can stand and sit alone. As durable as they are lovely, they are ready to be hugged and squeezed with love! Liberty and Evangeline are wearing adorable pink, feminine dresses, complete with white socks and white patent shoes. Your little girls can relive history when they dress their dolls in our specially designed, Vision Forum exclusive, historical costumes. Liberty and Evangeline can brave the voyage to New England as Priscilla Mullins, help Lewis and Clark find the Northwest Passage as Sacagawea, serve tea at the White House as Dolley Madison, stroll the deck of the Titanic as Nan Harper, or climb the Alps as Maria von Trapp. True "little girl" dolls are rare in our age of fashion models and rushed childhood. Playing with Liberty and Evangeline will fill your daughter's childhood with memories to inspire her as she grows up to be a mommy.

A Light Kindled

The Story of Priscilla Mullins

After the first winter in Plymouth, there were only a few women alive in the tiny colony. One of them was Priscilla Mullins. She had traveled to Massachusetts with her father and mother, but both had perished, leaving her alone in the New World. Undaunted, Priscilla chose to stay rather than return to the "safety" of England. Priscilla trusted completely in her Savior and lived a long and fruitful life with her Pilgrim husband. Together they were blessed with eleven children and an estimated one million descendants! Hardback. 60 pgs. 3+ BOOK 10055 | $16

The Story of Sacagawea

God's hand of providence in the lives of individuals affects the very fabric of history. "She looked a queen. . . . Unassuming, dignity, sweetness, grace. It seems to me that such manners would disarm envy itself, and conciliate even enemies." So wrote Dolley Madison's biographer after observing the first lady at James Madison's Inaugural Ball of 1809. The most popular and beloved of our American first ladies, her Christian character, kindness, generosity, and open hospitality are models for American girlhood today. All little girls love to dress up, and now Liberty or Evangeline can dress like First Lady Dolley Madison in her delicate white empire dress with its royal blue waistline sash and soft, gauze purse and scarf. In the Beautiful Girlhood Pilgrim outfit, Liberty and Evangeline can dress like Priscilla Mullins. The White House Parlor Harp

As First Lady, Dolley Madison was responsible not only to provide hospitality to her guests in the form of dinner, but entertainment as well. In those days, it was not uncommon to entertain guests in the parlor with the sound of the harp. Our harp, hand carved and made of beautiful rosewood, is similar to the type that might have been played at the White House. The sides of the harp are engraved in ancient Celtic artwork. It has three octaves with one full octave below Middle C, making it a fine teaching harp. The color coding helps students learn strings. Comes with a musical instruction book and canvas case. The Captain von Trapp Bosun's Whistle MF

Everyone who has watched The Sound of Music remembers Captain von Trapp calling the children from every corner of the house with his bosun's whistle. As a navy man, he knew that the whistle was a crucial communication tool for sailors. It could be heard above the pounding waves or screaming wind of a gale. And yes, even above the playground noises from a houseful of children. Our whistle is an authentic reproduction crafted of brass and copper. 3+ 98143 | $9

The von Trapp Family

Have you ever wondered what happened to Maria von Trapp and her musical family? Like many of the children of my generation, I grew up loving the wonderful story of the von Trapps made popular through the film, The Sound of Music. Later, I studied more about the life of Captain von Trapp and was impressed by the principled heroism of this man. I think it is fair to say that the music and themes of family devotion and principled living communicated in the film touched the hearts of a generation. Even now, it continues to influence so many of our little ones.

Imagine the thrill I experienced when I met a grandson of Captain von Trapp, his wife, and their four very sweet (and highly musical) children, Sofia, Melanie, Amanda, and Justin. Now home educators with an evangelical vision for raising godly children, this precious branch of the von Trapp family dynasty touched my heart with their humility and the simple purity of their vision for family, home, and Jesus Christ. With gratitude to God for His work in the life of this family, we have watched the four von Trapp children carrying on the legacy of the past.

Elsie Dinsmore

Elsie Dinsmore

By Martha Finley

In the nineteenth century, millions of readers learned the meaning of godly womanhood from a little girl named Elsie. Her commitment to principle in the midst of adversity and her passionate love for Jesus Christ were the theme of twenty-eight volumes spanning her life. These original twelve volumes are presented just as a young lady would have found them one hundred years ago. Over the last several years, I have heard hundreds of reports from home schoolers and Christian families about the blessing these books have been in their lives. Elsie raises the standard of godly womanhood to new heights. Feminists will not be happy with Elsie. She is a God-honoring young woman who strives to solve problems while working through biblical authority structures. Hardback. F

between single men and women? In Emotional Purity: An Affair of the Heart, Heather Paulsen boldly addresses the problem of "heart intimacy" that is rampant within "innocent" male/female relationships and offers practical solutions. Paperback. 179 pgs. F BOOK 84571 | $12

There is a sacred window of time in a boy's life when everything is possible: he can rescue the damsel in distress, explore America with Lewis and Clark, or cross the Atlantic with the Pilgrims. Tragically, this window is shrinking because our modern culture is at war with courageous boyhood. Many have forgotten what it means to be a boy and dream the noble dreams of youth.

The time has come to rebuild a culture of courageous boyhood. The All-American Boy's Adventure Catalog is one step on that journey. Within these pages, you will find inspirational gifts and concepts to build the character of a boy. Every toy, tool, and book has been carefully selected and designed to inspire and motivate boys to dream big dreams for the glory of God. Boys can demonstrate faith in the face of battle with Sergeant York or build a treehouse with dad. One of our goals is to demonstrate that the skills and experiences which historically made up the life of a boy were God-honoring vehicles for preparing him to be a man. He learns to explore because he is called to take dominion over the earth. He learns to emulate the lives of heroic Christians because he, too, is called to leadership.

Scripture is clear, "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Boys need vision. We humbly offer this catalog to you and the All-American boys in your family in the sincere hope that, together, we can rebuild a culture of courageous boyhood.

Douglas W. Phillips

DOUGLAS W. PHILLIPS, Esq., PRESIDENT

COURAGEOUS BOYHOOD IS...

Vision & Honor

“Where there is no vision, the people perish.” The same is true of boys. Without a vision for manhood, boys will perish. But true vision is cultivated by honor. The courageous boy longs to honor his father and his mother and to not just succeed, but to succeed his godly parents.

Faith & Fortitude

The first principle of courageous Christian boyhood is faith. True courage is an outgrowth of confidence in the sovereign will of God, the reflection of an abiding faith in Christ. The spirit of courageous boyhood is alive in the boy who perseveres through the many challenges of life.

Dominion & Scholarship

The courageous boy is on a mission from God to take dominion over the earth. This is why he loves to learn, to investigate, to master disciplines, and to search out the mysteries of creation. His basic textbook for life is the Holy Scriptures.

Loyalty & Patriotism

Behind the courage of a truly faithful boy is gratitude for his family, his nation, and for the tender mercies of God in his life, motivating him to demonstrate an unflinching loyalty. Therefore, he has the heart of a son and the spirit of a patriot.

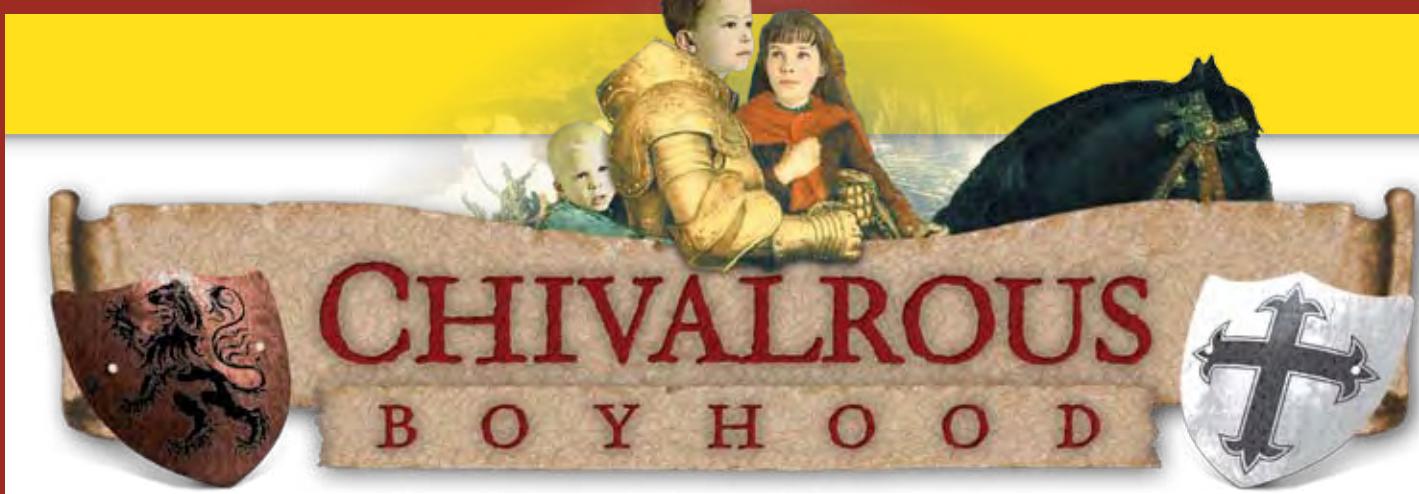

Virtue & Duty

It takes courage to be a virtuous boy in an impure world. But the truly courageous boy is steadfast in his commitment to remain pure in body, mind, and spirit. He will not be governed by undisciplined passions, or swayed by dangerous peer influence, and learns to stand alone and unmovable in his convictions.

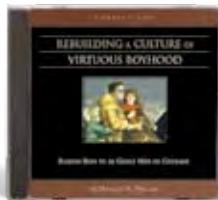

Adventure & Evangelism

The courageous boy is one who longs for the thrill of adventure and eschews the life of ease and sloth. This desire is not a pagan quest for self-glory, but is in pursuit of a higher cause—the advancement of the Gospel and Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

REBUILDING A CULTURE OF VIRTUOUS BOYHOOD

Douglas W. Phillips

This message answers the question: What does the Bible say about the way a boy should play? Issues of character, courtesy to women, sacrifice, and vision are critical. Our goal must be to move beyond pretty platitudes and to aspire to rebuild a culture of virtuous boyhood, so that every aspect of a young man's life is preparation for chivalrous leadership in the name of Jesus Christ. 74 mins.

The sound of the bugle is one of the most thrilling in military history and was often heard in Stonewall Jackson’s camp. Over the course of the cleaning process, the true identity and value of your coins will slowly be revealed. They will captivate you as you wonder how they were lost and who may have last held them. Were they held by a third-century Christian or martyr?

The coins you will find in your kit parallel the history of the early Church. Will your coin carry the visage of a tyrant who persecuted Christians? Will it belong to the Christian Constantinian dynasty of the 300s? In any case, these will probably be the oldest man-made items you have ever held. Special return policy. THE FRONTIER SERIES MF

By C.H. Pearson

Author C.H. Pearson draws from his personal experiences during the age of westward expansion. Young Tom Jones had high hopes and great ambitions, yet his heart was restless. For the Jones family and the settlers in the rugged West, times were hard. Then a missionary came to town, and Tom's life changed forever. Hostile Indians and hazardous fires are only two of the challenges Tom must face. Mr. Pearson presents a clear Gospel message in these tales of pioneer life on the Minnesota frontier. THE CLASSIC COONTAIL CAP

The coontail cap is the most important hat in the life of a young boy. It evokes images of heroes like Crockett and Boone, and symbolizes the All-American Boy. Like the frontiersmen who designed it, he hunts for his food and uses animal pelts for clothing. Camping in the woods or climbing a mountain is second nature to him, and hardships are to be expected, embraced, and overcome. He accepts others as they are, but lives his own life with conviction. I remember saving my allowance for months to buy a cheap reproduction, but now your boys can have the real thing at a fraction of the normal cost. The price is unbeatable. This lined cap is made of high-quality variegated rabbit skins and a raccoon tail. Pelt colors and tail lengths vary. Available in 5 3/4 (18" circumference) and 6 3/4 (21"). 3+ 21211 | $20

Roy Rogers Rides Again!

Howdy, Pardner! Remember the good ol' days when singin' cowboys taught little fellas to be courageous gentlemen by their excellent manners, thrillin' heroism, and Western moxie? Well, ya properly don't if ya was born after 1950. But some of us ol' timers still luv those good ol' days when ya could watch films as a family without havin' to 'pologize for the movie or bleep out ev'ry other word. That's why we dun put together some of our favorite stories from the life of America's Christian cowboy: Roy Rogers. Y'all can ride again with Roy and his horse Trigger as they go plum yonder 'cross the Rio Grande or along the Santa Fe trail.

One reason why I think y'all will like 'em is 'cuz they is mighty clean. Ain't no kissin' and no cussin' in these here videos. Ain't no psychological analysis of the good guys. Jus' a lot of ropin', ridin', and bad guy catchin'. It's real easy to tell the hero 'cuz he wears a big ol' white hat, sings real purdy, and treats the ladies real special-like. That's 'cuz Roy was a good ol' fashioned Christian cowboy and gentleman. But folks, I got to offer y'all a big Texas warnin': Please do not order these here videos if ya are a pacifist or if ya think that horses should have dominion over man. Ya just won't like 'em, Pardner. Oh, yeah: please don't order these here videos if ya get offended by women dressin' real feminine like neither. F

THREE-MAN SLINGSHOT

My family and other members of the Vision Forum staff had an unforgettable experience with the Three-Man Slingshot. We were invited to the home of the Zes family where, in honor of Independence

Day, the Zes brigade had constructed life-size wooden “Redcoat” soldiers, masterfully painted them, and then created an artillery capable of wiping out the British invaders. Enter the Three-Man Slingshot. Using black-cloth cannon balls filled with old Y2K beans, our little militia spent hours “shelling” the British menace that faced us across the green. Though it took a bit of practice and cooperation with the slingshot, we were soon knocking down the wooden soldiers that had invaded the Zes estate. Our Three-Man Slingshot is a humdinger. Featuring rip-proof vinyl grips and a heavy-duty denim pouch, this hurler can launch water balloons or other like-weight objects up to 150 yards. Constructed with high-grade surgical tubing, this slingshot is designed to endure many years of launching fun. 6+ 89875 | $18

We first discovered these swords during our 2003 Stonewall Jackson Tour of the Shenandoah Valley. Although we use these swords for mild, supervised jousts, they are replicas, not battle-worthy swords.

Fearless Fly-Boy, Faithful Father

COMING IN ON A WING AND A PRAYER

New!

By Kelly J. Brown

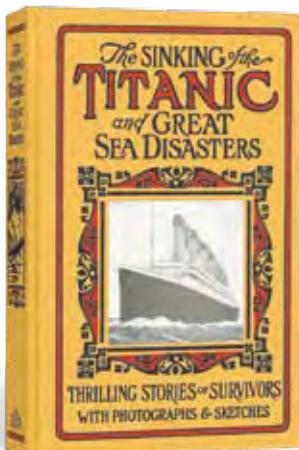

When a local barnstormer offered a flight to a little boy in exchange for one of his mother's home-cooked meals, young Bill Brown discovered his life-long fascination with aviation. Years later, he would grow up around the home of the man who would become the most famous pilot of the Second World War—Jimmy Doolittle of the “Doolittle Raiders.” Later, Bill became an eighteen-year-old P-51 fighter pilot performing daring raids from battlefields like Iwo Jima. The same Bill Brown who would be shot down during an aerial combat mission over Japan would grow up to be a dynamic servant of the Cross and faithful father. A featured character in the Vision Forum film The League of Grateful Sons, Bill Brown is now the subject of a thrilling story of combat, faith, and fatherhood told through the eyes of his granddaughter. In this beautifully designed, pictorially rich tale, Kelly Brown recounts the life of her flyboy grandfather in the form of a letter to generations yet to be born. THE SINKING OF THE TITANIC AND GREAT SEA DISASTERS

Edited by Marshall Logan,
Introduction by Douglas W. Phillips

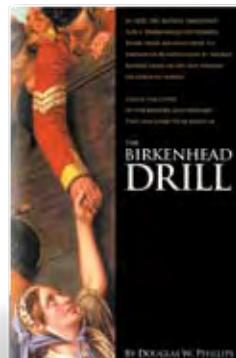

Years ago, I met Bob Garner, executive producer at Focus on the Family Films. When he was a boy, his grandmother had shown him a copy of an old, illustrated book about the Titanic. The book left a deep impression on his seven-year-old heart. Years later, while working with Robert Ballard, discoverer of the Titanic, God used the memory of that book and the story of the Titanic to bring him to the Lord. Intrigued, I asked my staff to track down an original copy. What I found fascinated me: the true account of men who gave up their lives for women and children. We have received hundreds of testimonies from families that have used this book for devotionals and from boys and girls who just can't put it down. Hardback. 350 pgs.   42411 | $24

Smith’s testimony: ‘I join my regiment, and march and fight as if there had been no Birkenhead disaster. It is soldiering—and it is discipline.’ My, how times have changed. Thank you. I will be using it to continue teaching my boys about courageous manhood.” Paperback. 83 pgs.   42157 | $8

A Christian Hero

DESTINATION: MOON

By Astronaut James Irwin

"I can't imagine what it must have been like to praise the God of creation while standing on the moon. . . . Jim Irwin has left a legacy in this book to enable each one of us to have a sense of what this must have been like."

—KEN HAM, PRESIDENT, ANSWERS IN GENESIS

"Jim Irwin's adventures on the moon made him an American hero. His use of those adventures to glorify God and point others to Christ make him a Christian hero."

—DR. JOHN MORRIS, PRESIDENT, ICR

The eighth man to walk on the moon took the entire Bible seriously because he took its Author seriously. He rejoiced in the Genesis account of origins. He believed that God created the world in six, twenty-four-hour days. That man was Col. James Irwin, the lunar vehicle commander for Apollo 15. Destination: Moon recounts his amazing physical and spiritual journey to the moon. With spectacular photos and "you are there" text, you will experience what it's like to train for four years as an astronaut. You will feel the emotions of lift-off, see Earth from space, and explore the moon. As amazing as his accomplishment was, Astronaut Irwin viewed it as insignificant compared to the accomplishments of the Creator. Col. Irwin spent the rest of his life sharing this message: "Jesus walking on Earth is more important than man walking on the moon." His legacy of faith and discovery is an inspiration even now, thirty years after he landed on the moon. Visually stunning. Hardback. 64 pgs.  BOOK 87562 | $16

Finally—a visually beautiful and biblically accurate family book about Noah's Ark. The typical children's books on this subject picture a Chinese junket-type vessel with smiling giraffes sticking their heads out of the windows. Such images lead to viewing Noah's Flood more as a nursery fable than a world-transforming geological event in which all humanity was put to death for sin, except for eight faithful.

The truth is that the Ark was simply enormous, the animals on Noah's Ark probably looked different from modern ones, and they included dinosaurs like the behemoth in the book of Job. The True Story of Noah's Ark sets the record straight. And the images of the interior of the Ark are like nothing you have seen before. This is not only an account of judgment and mercy, but a tale of biblical parenting. It is the story of a "preacher of righteousness" so successful at raising his children that, for one hundred years, his three sons trusted and followed their father by helping him to build an ark "for the saving of his household." The Book that Caused a National Controversy

The True Story of Noah's Ark

GRAND CANYON: A DIFFERENT VIEW

"Separation of church and state!" they cried. "Keep religion out of science," they demanded. In 2004, liberal newspaper editors and evolutionary scientists across the nation dragged Grand Canyon National Park into a raging controversy over this beautiful, fully-illustrated volume compiled by long-time Grand Canyon guide Tom Vail and carried in the National Park bookstores. The problem? Tom Vail honored the God of the Bible in a book sold on public grounds. Even more, Grand Canyon: A Different View presented in layman's terms an uncompromising biblical perspective on the formation and geology of the most famous canyon in the world. Mr. Vail offers a simple explanation of the Canyon's formation:

God's world-convulsing judgment at the time of the Global Flood. The book had such an impact that the presidents of seven leading scientific societies issued a joint letter to the National Park Superintendent calling for its ousting, claiming it to be "at odds with the well-documented scientific understanding of Earth history." Yet the book remains for sale at Grand Canyon National Park. Give this book to your family and remind them that God's Word will not be silenced. F BOOK 44884 | $17

Before Christ's Birth, Man Had Mapped Antarctica

MAPS OF THE ANCIENT SEA KINGS

New!

Thousands of years before Columbus discovered America or Magellan circumnavigated the globe, there were ancient sea kings who traveled the oceans from pole to pole. The Phoenicians, the Minoans, and other seafaring giants have left us evidence of their journeys across the "great waters" in the form of maps that date as far back as the Ice Age. The discovery of these amazing maps, including a pre-Ice Age Antarctica, has baffled evolutionists, but sheds light on the amazing biblical account of a post-Babel dispersion. This scholarly book is not a Christian treatise, but is helpful for creationists because it digs deep into the story of these millennia-old maps and the long-forgotten mariners who once surveyed the seas.
